Dear Business Partner:

We're growing! We would like to take this opportunity to introduce two new additions to our company. Effective January 30, Lars Hjalmlquist will begin serving as Western Region Sales Manager and John Fitzpatrick will begin serving as Business Development Manager here at Doors In Motion.

John Fitzpatrick comes to us with 20 plus years experience in the window, door, and automation industries here in the Greater Valley area. His reputation for customer service with integrity precedes him and his knowledge of the local and regional building markets is invaluable. John's direct area of focus will be working to forge sustainable business relations between dealers, builders, and installers in both existing markets and key growth areas.

Lars Hjalmlquist brings 20 plus years experience in the window and door industry to us. Lars has a broad range of sales management and marketing experience within the industry, working at all levels of sales management. Lars direct area of focus will be working with our independent representatives and dealers in key growth areas to form mutually beneficial partnerships from which to grow.

At Doors In Motion, our commitment to innovation, quality, and customer service are of paramount importance. We look forward to the increases level of customer service and relationship management that these two veterans of the industry can bring. Contact info for each below:
